

LIFE TO THE FULL

Day Five: Listen and Let's GO!

Today is the final day of the challenge and so we're going to combine both of the final points in the workbook and prepare ourselves for all that is to come for the rest of our journey with the Lord.

Acts 17 verse 27 tells us that God is not far away from any of us. But sometimes, He can feel so distant, can't He?

My prayer is that as you've been journeying through this challenge, you've been encouraged to take more time and space to pause and listen to the Lord.

As we read in point 9 of the workbook, when Jesus called Mary by name, she heard Him instantly because she knew His voice.

- ♥ As you've made space going through this bundle to listen to the Lord and take more time for Him, I have no doubt that He's been moving in and through you and speaking to your heart. Write down the key takeaways you have from this bundle and the things God has been saying to you as you've done this work.

LIFE TO THE FULL

One of the challenges with being vulnerable in the age of social media, is that comparison can slowly try to creep in. Don't let it!

YOU are fearfully and wonderfully made, YOU have been designed with intricate and intimate plans and purposes in mind and YOU are God's daughter, precious and chosen in His sight.

Do you know that to your core, lovely? Do you know that you are cherished by a God who rejoices over you with loud singing? (Check out Zephaniah 3:17!)

As we see in the final point of the workbook, when Jesus' disciples started questioning the destiny of each other, Jesus' response was not collective, it was individual.

'You follow me.'

I believe this is what God is calling us as His daughters to do also – to follow Him wholeheartedly with all that we are and all that we have.

- ♥ So lovely, really think about it, what is God calling you to do? Even when following Him goes against the grain, we're called to be obedient. (I share a little more about this in the Masterclass.) Is there anything in particular which God has been stirring in you as you've gone through this bundle? What are you going to do about it? When God says 'You follow me', what is YOUR response? Make some notes below.
